

Impact of "Stay at Home" Order

Residents can leave home for the following reasons:

- To obtain necessary supplies
- To obtain or provide necessary services
- To attend religious services
- To care for others
- To work for/on essential businesses & operations
- Local government officials & employees, as well as construction, included in definition of "essential businesses & operations"
- To engage in outdoor activities
- To seek shelter
- To travel as required by law